TWO CENTS

PRODUCERS OF DIRTY COAL ARE PENALIZED BY REDUCING PRICE

Many Cars Are Condemned Because of Low Quality of Bitumen

LOCAL OPERATORS NOT WORRIED

The production in the Pittsburgh district of a considerable quantity of what is classed as "dirty" coal is causing Richard W. Gardiner manager of production and distributor of bituminous coal in the district, to have condemned several car loads of such coal weekly. He had to condemn three such cars on Friday. When condemned such coal must be sold at 50 cents per ton less than the price fixed by the government.

Mr. Gardiner said he found that most of the mines producing dirty coal in the district were wagon mines and stripping mine variety. Much of the coal condemned is from the stripping mines, such coal being taken from too close to the surface to be of much heat value and is therefore useless to waste freight cars in hauling it. Mr. Gardiner said he proposed to condemn every car of dirty coal he finds and penalize the owner by making him sell it at a reduction of 50 cents a ton.

Local wagon mine operators have but little fear of the eagle eye of Mr. Gardiner with their output. Many of these mines are taking their product from virgin fields, while others are working what has been left in old mines, where many "stumps" and "rins" were left by the miners when they operated the mines many years ago. While some of the local product is what is termed "crop" coal, yet it is free from dirt, and while not as good for heating purposes as the carbon taken from lower depths, is yet a valuable fuel and finds a ready market. The wagon mine industry in and about Charleroi is a very important one, giving employment to a large number of men and producing many hundreds of tons of coal every week. The coal throughout this district is of excellent quality and operators of these small local mines have no trouble in disposing of the output.

TO ROUND UP ALL DRAFT EVADERS

Preparations to round up all those who evaded the draft registration on Thursday have been completed by the government and a hunt for the slackers will be immediately instituted. While the number of these evaders may be comparatively small, they will be hunted out and stand to have the penalty of one year's imprisonment imposed upon them.

COMING, THE SIREN OF THE NILE, "CLEOPATRA" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE, THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY OF NEXT WEEK.

DRY ZONE BILL IS SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

President Wilson on Thursday signed the bill giving him authority to establish dry zones around shipyards, munition plants and other war industries, which with the military dry zone laws and regulations virtually gives the President power to make all the leading centers of population dry territory for the period of the war. Under the new law the government will have the power to establish dry zones to include any districts in which complaint of lax law is made. Districts in the vicinity of coal mines is also included in the bill.

STRENGTH OF THE AMERICAN ARMY

In the big offensive now under way on the Lorraine front Gen. Pershing is engaging the Germans with thirty American Divisions. Each of these Divisions is made up of four infantry regiments, three artillery regiments, three machine gun battalions, one trench mortar unit, one regiment of engineers, a battalion of signal corps and a full complement of supply trains. In other words, thirty regiments of infantry, ninety regiments of artillery, ninety machine gun battalions, thirty trench mortar units, thirty regiments of Engineers, thirty battalions of signal corps units, and hundreds of supply trains. The total strength of vast army is probably over six hundred thousand men, certainly an imposing number and one which will make it decidedly warm for the Germans.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO PROVIDE FOOTBALL

Lovers of outdoor sports and particularly football, will have to be satisfied with the contests staged by the various high school teams throughout the country this fall, as this sport has been practically banned by the war department in all educational institutions it has taken over. That is to say, no comprehensive schedule will be followed by the different colleges and universities and particularly in those institutions where military training will be a feature. However, some of the high schools have prospects of some fine teams and a number of thrilling contests may be expected in this section of the valley.

Slovaks To Hold A Street Demonstration

On the third of September the United States government, through its Secretary of State, Mr. Lansing, recognized the Czechoslovaks as belligerents and Allies. This high honor was awarded them previously by the governments of France, Great Britain and Italy. The boys of Czechoslovak descent are writing their thanks for this generosity into the heads of the Boches, Austrians and Poles with the butts of their rifles on the battlefields of France, Italy and Russia. Their parents, brothers and sisters living among us in Charleroi until the time arrives to join hands in this great struggle, want to demonstrate their thankfulness to the great executive of America, President Wilson, the government and to the democratic people of this land, therefore on Sunday, September 15, at 2 o'clock p. m. they will assemble for a parade, which will start from Russian Hall, and at Fifth street E. O. Tabor, Esq., of Pittsburgh and S. L. Woodward, Burgess of Charleroi, will make short addresses. The Slovak band of Charleroi will lead the parade.

Are Preparing For Liberty Loan Campaign

Kerfoot W. Daly chairman of the Liberty Loan campaign committee for eastern Washington county and B. Patterson who will have charge of the local campaign in Charleroi were in Pittsburgh on Friday in consultation with the executive committee of Allegheny county, with a view of getting new ideas which may be adopted in the coming campaign which will open on the 28th of this month.

They secured quite a fund of information and were advised as to a number of new plans which will be placed in operation in Pittsburgh and Allegheny county with a view of stimulating public interest as well as increase the sale of Liberty Bonds in the next campaign. Some of these plans will be adopted in a modified way for use in Charleroi and Washington county, due notice of which Charleroi's quota will require intensive work on the part of the local committee, but it is believed the members will be able to reach the goal.

TOOK TOMATOES; LEFT NECKTIE MANY VACANCIES IN STATE POLICE

C. B. Copeland, of Fallowfield avenue, who has one of the finest war gardens in Charleroi, suffered the loss of some of his finest tomatoes Wednesday night by theft. "Cy" spent many patient and strenuous hours in bringing his garden through the drought in August, and had prospects of one of the finest tomato crops in this district. He was especially interested in some large ones of the "beefsteak" variety and was watching them with the greatest interest only to realize Thursday morning that some one had "beaten him to it." While "Cy" regrets the loss of the tomatoes, he is in no wise peeved over the incident, but he does say that if the fellow who took the "fruit of the vine" will only make himself known he will return the fine silk four-in-hand which the thief evidently dropped while on his marauding expedition.

Thirty-nine vacancies, the largest number ever existing in the State Police at one time, are reported and efforts are being made by Superintendent George F. Lumb to fill up the ranks without waiting for the specified enlistment days. Men as old as 40 are being taken if they can pass the physical test. Married men are also being enlisted.

Owing to the vacancies the State Police have not been able to send out as many substations as heretofore, although the demands for the presence of officers at fairs and similar gatherings are as great as ever. Most of the men whose enlistments have expired have gone into the army.

Attend the Fall millinery opening at Oates Shoppe, Saturday Sept. 14.

NEXT CALL FOR MEN IS FIXED FOR THE SEVENTH OF OCTOBER

ALL PASSENGER COACHES REPORTED IN USE

During August an official report of the Monongahela Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad showed that there were no passenger or baggage cars stored any place along that division. Every car is in service. Heavy troop movements has taken most of the steel passenger cars from the local Division and the old wooden coaches which had been in storage for a number of years had to be taken out to accommodate traffic. But few passenger trains these days are composed of steel cars.

WILL DEVELOP A RURAL COMMUNITY

Deeds passed on Wednesday where by a number of Monessen people became the owners of about thirty-one acres of the Robert Allen farm in Rostraver township a short distance east of that town. It is the purpose of the new owners to plot the land, upon which they will erect modern homes. The plan is laid out in one and two acre lots which are sold with building restrictions so that no house erected thereon will cost less than $8,000. The property faces state road on both sides leading from West Newton to Belle Vernon. It is conveniently located to Monessen and gives a nice view of the surrounding country. The plan is to be called Alexandria, after a pioneer resident who is mentioned in the original grant. William A. McShaffrey will erect the first home, having already let the contract and the house will be built at once.

As the community develops many conveniences will be added in the way of a water works, as well as electric light. The promoters and owners of the enterprise are among the leading business men of Monessen.

BIG BOAT OVERHAULED FOR LOCAL COAL TRADE

The W. K. Fields of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, one of the large boats formerly used in the trade between Pittsburgh and Louisville on the Ohio river, has just been remodeled at the Marine Ways, Elizabeth, and now resembles a pool boat in appearance. The Fields will be used in towing coal from Pittsburgh to Steubenville and way points and may possibly be used to some extent in the pools. The Fields was formerly the Joseph Walton and was considered one of the best boats of her class. The steamer Fallie will also be engaged in the Steubenville trade, as well as pool work. Both boats were extensively overhauled at the Elizabeth yards.

No New Registrants Will Be Taken In This Quota

GO TO LEE AND HUMPHREYS

The first October calls for men to be sent from Pennsylvania to army camps were received at State Draft headquarters in Harrisburg on Friday, and quotas will be worked out immediately. These calls will not include men who registered on Thursday, it was stated at the headquarters. Nine thousand white men qualified for general military service are to be entrained in the five days beginning October 7 for Camp Lee, where large numbers of Pennsylvania have been sent lately and in the same period 2,000 white men are to be sent to Camp Humphreys, Va.

The quota from the Fifth District will be made up from the men who have been summoned for physical examination at headquarters in Donora next week, a list of whose names appeared in the Mail on Thursday. The local board will not know for several days just how many men will be required to fill the calls for these two cantonments, but the state will not ask for more men than are available at the present time. As no men registered on Thursday are to be taken, the next quotas will almost clean up all the men available at the present time in the district. For the November call, however, the local board will have plenty of men to select from as those who registered on Thursday will be available by that time. Questionnaires will be mailed the greater number of them within the next few days which will be made returnable before October first, after which time classification will begin.

KNITTING AUXILIARY CONTINUES ACTIVE

St. Jerome's Red Cross Auxiliary met Thursday evening with Mrs. C. J. Mogan, Crest avenue. The attendance was good considering the inclement weather.

The following finished work was turned in: 4 pairs socks, 2 sweaters, and 2 convalescent quilts. The meeting next Thursday evening will be held at the same place.

PLAYING THE HUN GAME

There are numerous ways of playing into the hands of the Kaiser and his minions of murder. Most of them are directly traceable to over confidence.

With too many of us the wish is father to the thought that this war is soon to be finished in German defeat. We read behind the lines as it were in the daily newspaper reports of successive allied advances and see the way soon open to the Rhine and next to Berlin.

But don't permit yourself to be deceived too readily. It's along way to Potsdam Palace. And the closer the allies get the harder the fighting will be.

For the Germans, once pushed back upon their own soil will fight to the death.

And they are yet far from being on their own soil.

It is now approximately 120 miles from Ypres to the German border. It is about 120 miles from St. Quentin to Berlin. There is many a milepost between many a mile that will be hard fought over. That will be bought at the cost of many lives.

Moreover there is the Russian situation to be ironed out; a situation fraught with tremendous menace. German influence still seems dominant there. German intrigue precipitated the present chaos. German poison is still being administered to the foggy Russian mind. Germany will leave nothing undone to maintain her advantage.

And if Russian armed assistance may be mustered by Germany it only adds immeasurably to the bloody task ahead of us.

Then too there are the Balkans, where Germany is supreme. Serbia must be rescued. Roumania must be unshackled. Bulgaria seems threatening to revolt against German throttling, but that is only problematical. In the finish the Balkan situation must be cleared up also. And Europe has been unable to do this in half a century.

So when the situation is fully and clearly analyzed, it isn't as promising as we have sometimes permitted ourselves to believe. It becomes more and more clear that we yet have a long road ahead of us to Victory Day.

We mustn't slack up in our efforts. Our assistance our willingness to serve, through any misconception of the facts. We must continue to sacrifice.

We must buy Liberty Bonds as freely now as in the earlier drives. Uncle Sam needs our help more than ever.

RESULTS OF HOOVERIZING

Are we starving? Are we even going hungry? We have not noticed it ourselves; nor heard of it, unless from pro-Germans who have not yet been lined up against the wall. Of course, we cannot always get precisely what our fastidious and pampered palates would most delight to have. But hunger is satisfied and the physical frame is nourished; and that is the primary intent of food.

Yet what a tremendous contribution we have made to the feeding of the world; or to that large part of it which stands with us or with which we stand, in opposition to the Huns. Mr. Hoover, who is supremely identified with the process, has made an impressive report upon it to the President, showing the practical results of meatless days and sugar rationing and all the rest of it.

So far as wheat and other cereals are concerned, the fiscal year for 1917-18, showed an increase over the preceding year of more than 80,000,000 bushels exported, or nearly 31 per cent. This was due not to any increase in our production, since, despite increased acreage, the cereal crops of 1917-18 depended were scanty. It was due chiefly if not wholly to the economies and substitutions practiced by the American people.

Still more striking are the results attained in meats, meat products, fat butter, vegetable oils, etc. In exports of these the last fiscal year showed an increase over the preceding year of 844,000,000 pounds or nearly 39 per cent. That was an enormous increase, but it was vastly more so when contrasted with conditions before the war. The exports of the first six months of 1918 were 2,132,100,000 pounds. In the first halves of the three years preceding the war they averaged only 501,000,000 pounds. There has thus been an increase of 300 per cent in such exports.

These are the results of "Hooverizing." These figures show to Americans what has been gained through their self-discipline in gastronomy. What such increases of exports have meant to our Allies must be left to the imagination.

OUR FIRST OFFENSIVE

American's greatest army is smashing the German lines along the Lorraine front, not far from the strongly fortified town of Metz. Reports from the battle line indicate that the troops are making splendid headway against the German defense and on Thursday morning gained their objectives one hour ahead of the schedule. Of course the same speed that the Germans will be driven back as far as Metz at least in the present offensive, with possibility of enveloping that city and compelling the Germans to evacuate it. If this can be accomplished it will be a great victory for the American forces, but in any event the Germans are going to have a very busy time in keeping out of the way of the Yanks, who are on the way to Berlin.

However, the greatest interest in this drive is the fact that Gen. Pershing has his first American Field Army in action and which is composed of units from every branch of the service. Many of the troops of this army are now in action for the first time, but they have been trained so well that the American staff has no fears as to their conduct while under fire. The sector along which the Americans are now fighting has been comparatively quiet for a number of months, but it was anticipated that Gen. Foch would authorize a movement in this section just as soon as the battlelines to the north had been somewhat stabilized. Not that the British and French have let up on their activities, for they are still making some progress, but the movement of the American army will have an important bearing on developments to the north. With the Yanks pushing the Huns back toward the Rhine along the lower sector, there will have to be a further retirement of the Germans in the north in order to protect their lines of communication as well as to save their troops from capture.

The drive of the American army is momentous. It is apt to bring about conditions which will compel the Huns to retire from northern France, which will be preliminary to their withdrawal from Belgium.

THE REGISTRATION

Six thousand five hundred and eight male residents of the Fifth District of Washington county registered in the selective service on Thursday, thus placing themselves at the disposition of the government for any naval or military service it may require. Of this number approximately thirteen hundred will be summoned, and placed in the service of the United States, within the next year. This figure may vary a little, but not a great deal, for it is estimated that about one man in every five will be summoned for service.

However, whatever number the government may call, it will be found that plenty of men will be available to answer and that the task of going ahead with the addition of two millions more men to the army is now greatly simplified.

The splendid spirit of the men in going to the polls and registering is shown in the returns from all parts of the country, which indicate that over thirteen millions have enrolled, a great majority of whom are ready to take up military or naval service. If the government should require it of them. Of course the far greater number of these men will be placed in deferred classifications, but there will be plenty remaining to meet the requirements of the government. The spirit of the men is certainly splendid and shows they are ready to back the government to the limit in the prosecution of the war.

Why are high German officials appealing through the press to the people to keep up their courage and to die rather than submit to a triumph of their enemies? The only reasonable answer is that the German people are as restless as well as disheartened, realizing at least that they can't win and knowing that the Kaiser is ready to send them all to death rather than sue for peace in a manner acceptable to the Allies. Evidently His High Mightiness has his hands full at home as well as on the west front.

Will American soldiers marry French girls? They certainly will, according to a woman correspondent of the New York Sun, because American girls know nothing about cooking. By way of proof a letter is cited from an American soldier enthusiastically praising a little French girl of ten years who cooked an excellent dinner when her mother was ill and won the soldier's heart. The American girl who can't even boil an egg has been only warned.

Even the actual work of destruction accomplished by German submarines is being largely undone. Nearly five hundred vessels sunk in the shallow waters of the British coast have already been raised and restored to service. The work is known as the "salvage job" of the Admiralty and has put into successful operation many new and efficient salvage devices.

The story comes that the King of Saxony is sending his two youngest daughters to a cooking and "housewifery" school in order that they may be able to marry into the middle class or earn a living if "something should happen" to German royalty. Level-headed is the king who turns such a practical eye on a foreshadowed future.

SEED CAMPAIGN IS NATION WIDE

Thursday, September 19, has been designated as Peach Day in the Chicago public schools, in order to induce the school children of that city to collect fruit stones and nut shells to make gas mask carbon. Barrels will be placed in the 500 school houses of the city to receive the offerings and a large quantity is expected to be secured.

In Charleroi the collection of fruit seeds and particularly the peach stones has been going on for several days and already quite a lot have been secured. However, there is room for more and receptacles at the Berryman store will provide a place to deposit any that our people may bring. Peach stones and other fruit seeds have been found valuable in material for making carbon to be used in gas masks, and the government is making an appeal to the people to save all of them, deposit them in some central place, after which they will be collected and sent to a designated depot. Charleroi can assist materially in this work by very little effort and our people should take sufficient interest to save all such seeds and send them to the central depository. It is one way of doing your "bit."

CALLS ATTENTION TO GAME SEASON

The Game Commissioner of Pennsylvania, Joseph Kalibus, secretary, gives notice that it is illegal to kill any of the wild game given below until the regular open season for such game in the state at large is noted by posters sent to many parts of the State as the said counties have been closed by the Board of Game Commissioners of Pennsylvania to the hunting of birds and animals named until that time, under the provisions and regulations provided for by the Acts of Assembly of April 29, 1913 and April 9, 1915, paragraph laws 120 and 73 respectively. Special attention is called to the fact that all counties are closed to the hunting of ruffed grouse commonly called pheasants, for the season of 1915. In Washington and Greene counties ruffed grouse, ruffed grouse pheasants, Virginia and Hungarian quail cannot be taken until 1919. Fines for violation of the law range from $25 to $300.

F. B. Parker, says: "For twenty-five years, I had rheumatic pains and at times I was unable to work. The trouble started with pains in my hips, and extended into my left limb. I was so bad off at one time that I couldn't work. I heard of a man who had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some at Lange's Pharmacy. They gave me relief in four days and continued use made me better. I am now feeling fine and I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine on the market."

DRIVEN FROM HOME

Our boys and girls are leaving the farms and home towns by the thousand and swarming into the congested cities. There they fight and struggle against frightful odds, the majority never getting a chance. If we had always spent our money at home we could have built up industries at home to give employment to these boys and girls. How many children has our neglect of home interests driven away into the big cities? Just in so far as we failed to give our support to our home community are we responsible for this condition. We are the ones who have blocked their chances. We have placed a handicap in their lives. They are not other people's children. They are ours. But it is not too late to do our duty by the next generation. They belong to us, too. Let us do everything in our power to keep these children at home. Let us spend our money at home.

FOR SALE BLACK WALNUT

About 15,000,000 feet of black walnut timber has been located and its existence reported to the Forest Service by the Boy Scouts since they were called upon by the President to assist the Government in locating this timber for gunstock and propeller material.

The Boy Scouts send the reports to the Forest Service, where the information is compiled and then forwarded to the Navy Department. The Government itself is not buying the walnut, but sends out the information to manufacturers working on government contracts.

The widely heralded film version of the loves of Egypt's siren queen

AT THE

Majestic Theatre

Considered as a film of surpassing beauty, "Cleopatra" is the most perfect picture of the Nile. The ancient Egyptian queen, Cleopatra, is portrayed by the most perfect actress of the day, Theda Bara. The picture depicts that lady's historical encounters with Caesar and Antony, and the meeting of her army and that of Antony with the forces of Octavius. It shows the world's first war, but in the name of Antony, who the combined fleets of Antony and Cleopatra were routed and finally landed to the waters edge by the Romans.

Cleopatra, Theda Bara, and Antony, played by Joseph Schildkraut, were shown in the picture of J. Gordon Edwards. The picture is a masterpiece of art and is shown in the best of the world's first war, but in the name of Antony, who the combined fleets of Antony and Cleopatra were routed and finally landed to the waters edge by the Romans.
